Art Unit: 1625

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Applicants' amendments of 4/28/2000 and 6/27/2000 overcame the various rejection of record. With regard to patent 4,738,974 cited in the interview form, it is noted that the amended claimed language sufficiently demarcates from '974 patent. Also note the difference in melting point of the claimed compound versus the art compound. The corresponding obvious double patenting rejection is overcome in view of the declaration of record.
